

Privacy Policy for Owatonna.org

Effective as of January 25, 2007.

General Statement of Privacy

The Owatonna Area Chamber of Commerce & Tourism (OACCT) respects the privacy of its members and of those who visit this site. Subject to the provisions of applicable laws, any information you submit to the OACCT will not be used in any manner to which you have not consented. While the OACCT does analyze its Web site logs to monitor the flow of traffic and make improvements to the site's content, its Web site logs are not personally identifiable, and no attempt to link them to individual visitors to this site is made.

Personally Identifiable Information

We do not collect Personally Identifiable Information about you on theOwatonna.org Web site without your knowledge or action. Your information is collected through the membership registration form and/or event registration forms. This information includes, but is not limited to, your name (first and last), company name, company address, phone number, fax number, e-mail address, and credit card information. You should be aware that if you disclose any information on a bulletin board or on our blog or other open forum that is hosted by the OACCT, others may collect that information to send you unsolicited information from outside the OACCT, or for other purposes.

Use of Personally Identifiable Information

We reserve the option to share your contact information with certain third parties. This includes the general public. You will always have the ability to opt out from receiving information from the OACCT. You can opt out of posting your contact information by indicating so to the OACCT.

Non-Personally Identifiable Information

Non-Personally Identifiable Information includes, but is not limited to, information we automatically collect on your use and/or actions on our Web site (e.g., user traffic patterns, page views on the Web site, search terms that users enter into our search utility). In addition, when a visitor arrives at our site, we collect the IP address, operating system, and browser software used. An IP address (which is not the same as an e-mail address) can tell us the user's internet service provider and, based on that, can suggest the geographic location of the connection.

Third Party use of personal information

The Owatonna Chamber Web site contains links to other Internet Web sites, including co-branded or other affiliated sites. Unless otherwise explicitly stated, we are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites, including such sites' use of any information.

Security

You understand and agree that "perfect" security does not exist anywhere, including on the Internet. When you send credit card information, we encrypt this information between your computer and our server. Our Web site is protected by a firewall and monitored for security.

Merchant Services

You may be able to access certain information related to third parties at the Site, or via links from the Site, regarding the goods or services of third parties. You understand and agree that your access to or use of those services is a matter entirely between you and the associated third parties, and the OACCT shall have no liability whatsoever for any such access or use.

Correcting, Updating or Deleting Information

The Owatonna.org Web site gives users the option to correct, update or delete any information previously provided to us by the user. This updated information will be recorded and stored in our database system.

To make changes to your contact information, or to opt out of receiving information, please contact us in one of the following ways:

1. Manage/change your business information by logging into Owatonna.org (<http://members.owatonna.org/sbaweb/members/login.asp>, via your unique username/password)
